

UNSW
SYDNEY

Human Rights of Older Persons

Examining international human rights frameworks for the protection of the human rights of the older person and the need to adopt a new treaty to better protect those rights. Research in the field of international human rights law and its implementation at the national level.

Expertise

- Expertise and experience in relation to the United Nations standards and human rights mechanisms and national mechanism for the implementation of human rights
- Gender and international human rights and the human rights of persons with disabilities
- Expertise in human rights of older persons and their protection under international law

Impact

- Contributed to global diplomatic efforts to develop new instruments, including a complaints procedure to the CEDAW Convention, the Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities. Supported the work of a number of civil society organisations in Australia and abroad
- Joint and individual submissions to Parliamentary and other inquiries on human rights and related matters, provided expert evidence and submission to courts and other bodies

Our partners

- Asia Pacific Forum of National Human Rights Institutions
- UN Department of Economic and Social Affairs
- Office of the UN High Commissioner for Human Rights
- Australian Parliament
- Human Rights Committee of the NSW Bar Association
- Law Council of Australia
- Asian Development Bank
- Women's Rights Action Watch Asia-Pacific

More Information

Professor Andrew Byrnes

Faculty of Law/ Australian Human Rights Institute

T: +61 (0) 418 611846

E: andrew.byrnes@unsw.edu.au

UNSW Knowledge Exchange

knowledge.exchange@unsw.edu.au

www.capabilities.unsw.edu.au

+61 (2) 9385 5008